PRESIDENTIAL PRESS

As I sit here contemplating the pending long weekend and what I might need to pack for a trip to the farm, I think to myself... how lucky are we. How lucky are we that we have managed to weather the pandemic better than our eastern cousins and many other countries across the globe. How lucky are we that our weather has been kind to us (so far) whilst those in Qld and NSW coastal regions battle extended rains and associated flooding. How lucky are we that we don't share a border with a large country that is intent on bullying us. Despite all this we are now free to travel anywhere in the country and most parts of the world, anyone else travelling for the long weekend. I like living in sleepy hollow SA.

The other distraction at the moment, is the never ending forest of election posters that continue to spread across the district, yep a real 1st world problem I know ☺. I'm not sure, but this election seems to be relatively low key compared to previous ones.

Talking about elections, yes you guessed it, it's the segway into nominating for a committee position at the AGM. We are definitely looking for a President, Education Officer, Magazine Editor and maybe even an Assistant Membership Officer along with the general member positions. Please consider helping out and grab a form or speak to a committee member.

With covid restrictions easing midnight on the 12 we are almost back to normal...well sort of. So, keep well and stay safe!

Fishing Trip Report

Well, the annual Coorong Fishing Trip was held from Friday 4-6th March. Some of us thought it went until Monday Eric!! Perhaps, because it was the delayed November trip from 2021 he added an extra day when it went up on the board? The advanced party of Ian, Lyn and Trevor set up camp at site 25 in the Coorong National Park.

This site has numerous advantages:

In a depression so sheltered from the windy southern ocean.

Large enough to accommodate 10 4WD's and various tents, swags and rooftop contraptions.

Secret underground wood pile.

Not too big a hike to deep gutter for fish.

Really close to the Tea Tree Crossing.

I personally think this crossing is a figment of someone's imagination as I'm yet to cross it! Hearing a couple of tales about the sandhill there, maybe I don't want to do it.

By Friday the advanced party reported catches of 3 Fiddler Rays, 3 Port Jackson sharks, 1 Soapie (hopefully not a cake of soap) and 1 Salmon.

The remainder of the group met at the infamous Menindee Bakery on the shores of Lake Albert Friday morning. Coffee, pies and pasties were the order of the day.

Onward to 42 mile crossing where several other camping groups had set up tents etc. at a base camp for their weekend. Grass and toilets at that sight.

Next 15 psi tyre pressures and onward to the beach.

Tall tales started at this point.

Our intrepid leader, Eric, suggested we take the beach detour/wash out in our stride. "Fast approach, off the 1.5m drop-off, down to the flat sand and spin around the corner. This would avoid the detour around the back of the sandhills onto the very solid, well marked, un-rutted road. Several people were left Wondering if this was a smart move after the man himself required a hand to climb back up the drop off.

We did take the sedate road so as not to further damage the beach. Friday afternoon saw a range of weather conditions from sun to misty damp rain. Friday was salmon and mulloway day.

Nicholas, Serge, Amanda and Dewi managed to catch the much sought after fish. Salmon was caught by Trevor and Serge.

Neil caught a wave, or rather it caught him.

Dinner and campfire chat that night, slightly spoilt by some misty rain later in the evening.

Saturday the fish decided to hide. Ian tried to find them with his drone. Amanda caught a wave but missed bringin in a fish.

Thanks Eric, for once again leading a great trip.

Eric, well let's just say we need to see a few more videos of Eric actually catching a fish.

We're all coming back to haunt you in November!

Dinner that night around the fire was a feast. Fresh camp oven damper and a rotisserie of chicken and pork. Third course was marshmallows and M&M's.

A totally great weekend in the "fresh air away from news of European wars and infectious bugs".

I appreciated Amanda's 'Hallelujah' and Nicolas saying "that must mean we're off the sand too" when after about 40 mins of beach driving we headed south and drove off the beach sand. No one in our group bot bogged. Someone admitted to being always nervous driving on sand and others to it being 'a piece of cake'.

Meningie bakery again for coffee, cakes and ½ price family potato pies and quiches. A bargain and easy tea! Anybody else get apple not apricot pie?? Ripped off! But at $4.50 would you bother going back to change it?

And .... the winner is?
To be announced at the March meeting
